

POPULAR CULTURE: A GLIMPSE AT THE CHALLENGES FACING YOUNG PEOPLE TODAY

Who

Parents & guardians

What

A FREE mini-conference

Where

St. Paul Parish Centre
8251 St. Albans
Richmond, BC

When

October 27, 2007
10:00 - 1:30 pm

Program

10:00 - 10:15

Why are we here?

10:15 - 11:15

Keynote Speaker - Dr. Sonia Mata

11:15 - 12:00

Small group discussion

12:00 - 12:30

Light LUNCH provided

12:30 - 1:30

Discussion, action plans, wrap up.

Brought to you by:

St. Paul Parish Prevention Ministry

For catering and handout purposes, please contact us to register.

Email: preventionministry@stpaulparish.ca

Or call: Lani at 604-277-0991

Sonia Mata, MD, MSc.

- Trained as a medical doctor in Spain
- Senior consultant and manager for leadership programs and social projects for high school & university students, directing and implementing such activities in five Canadian cities.
- Given seminars to parents on teens issues.
- Consultant for the Foundation for Culture and Education (FCE)
- Serving on the board of directors of an independent school for girls in Toronto.